

Spring Fling Egg Scavenger Hunt

Directions: Read all clues carefully before searching for eggs. Hint: Check city parks, city properties, and schools. Write the code word from the back of the eggs on this answer sheet and turn it in to the Recreation Center by Saturday, April 3 during regular business hours for a goody bag of candy.

#1 Score a goal while the train whistle blows. Hint: Could be a Pillsbury Doughboy roll or a type of moon.	#2 This is where you prance if you go to the Daddy Daughter Dance.
#3 Who will win this year's Wyoming's Got Talent under the roof in the center of town?	#4 The mulch pile stinks so much you'll have to leaf.
#5 For things stashed by a cotton tail, look in the park at the end of Vale. Get Ready, Get Set, Get Muddy!	#6 Peter Cottontail says hop to our most hidden park with the baseball field on the top.
#7 Will Peter Cottontail be able to hippity hop to Hill ___ Park?	#8 Here comes Peter Cottontail hopping down the Hike/Bike Trail....between the bridges.
#9 Every bunny will love the new turf fields.	#10 Home of the 9-12 Cowboys' favorite singing, dancing, and theatre performances.
#11 Where our smallest baseball players learn to play t-ball, at this school that shares the name of an east coast state.	#12 Find our only school named after a tree.
#13 Find the school on top of the hill where you can also play all day!	#14 In the "middle" of the Avenue by the boulevard you can find this school.
#15 This little piggy loves to sing, dance, and play violin.	#16 Bring a tennis racquet and your "tots" can play all day.
#17 Headquarters for all city business.	#18 Enjoy the water fountain and serene flower garden during the warmer months at this Wyoming landmark.
#19 This natural preserve is part of the Green Areas Trust and shares its name with a famous Wyoming mansion next door. A historical marker is placed at the entrance.	#20 You may have gone sledding down the hill at this park or driven past it after going to the bank. Hippity hop, my name is on the rock.
